

Laurie Campbell Nunes

Marketing Communications | Graphic Design,
Board of Directors - DFV

Laurie's experience has spanned the scope of donor relations, account and operations management, marketing communications, graphic design, donor development, administrative and project management. She has managed creative teams up to 20, in addition to managing multiple freelancers, vendors and projects. She has been directly involved with creating plans and strategies to managing projects, schedules, budgets and staff.

In addition to serving the the DFV Board of Directors, Laurie manages the marketing communications for Diuble Family Vision, including the website development, marketing collateral and development strategy.

"A goal without a plan is just a wish." – A.DeSaint-Exupery